

What if all generations came together to “do” church?

What if old and young were equally valued?

What if we decided to share faith and life together?

IT COULD BE REVOLUTIONARY!

CASA NETWORK LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE NOVEMBER 10-12, 2010 ATLANTA, GEORGIA

MAIN CONFERENCE PLENARY SPEAKERS //

DR. GORDON MACDONALD has served in full-time Christian ministry for over 40 years, as a pastor, president of InterVarsity Fellowship and interim president of Denver Seminary. He currently serves as editor-at-large with Leadership Journal. He has written several books including, Who Stole My Church? The Resilient Life, and Mid-Course Correction. His deep insights into church life and leadership will encourage those who want to see healthy intergenerational relationships in today’s church.

DR. DOLPHUS WEARY is the former president of Mendenhall Ministries and Mission Mississippi, and currently serves as president of Rural Education and Leadership (R.E.A.L.) Christian Foundation. He is the author of the book, I Ain’t Comin’ Back, the story of his life and ministry. As a popular and beloved speaker and statesman, Dr. Weary shares his passion for racial and generational unity on college campuses, in churches, seminaries and conferences.

DR. AMY HANSON is a passionate and enthusiastic speaker with a desire to help midlife and older adults discover a life of purpose and meaning. She currently has a speaking, writing and consulting ministry, and also teaches gerontology classes at the University of Nebraska. Her new book Boomers and Beyond: Tapping the Ministry Talents and Passions of Adults Over 50 will be released summer, 2010.

DR. WARD TANNEBERG is the Executive Director of CASA Network. He has served as a pastor in several congregations, leading them to health, vitality and spiritual growth. He is author of several books including Seasons of the Spirit, Vanished and Pursuit. Ward is a popular conference speaker who shares his heart and passion for ministry with those in life’s second half.

SPECIAL PRE-CONFERENCE SESSION WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10 SHIFTING THE GENERATIONAL PARADIGM//

DR. CHUCK STECKER founder and president of A Chosen Generation, will be the keynote speaker for this pre-conference session. He is an ordained minister, Army Lieutenant Colonel, businessman, and former regional director for Promise Keepers. Chuck is committed to helping the church return to truly intergenerational communities.

DR. PETE MENCONI is the Outreach Pastor at Greenwood Community Church in Greenwood Village, Colorado, and author of The Intergenerational Church: Understanding Congregations from WWII to www.com. Pete will co-lead this interactive and dynamic session and will help participants identify practical ways to implement intergenerational ministry into the local church.

WORKSHOPS//

These unique and dynamic workshops will focus on strategic and timely issues facing leaders today. Our speakers are some of America’s most innovative intergenerational and second-half ministry leaders. For more details about the workshop sessions, leaders and schedules, please visit: <http://gocasa.org/events/conference/>

WORSHIP: FINDING THE BRIDGE OVER TROUBLED WATER How do we develop meaningful worship experiences for all generations? Is peace to be found in the midst of the so-called “worship wars?” DR. MICHAEL SHARP—musician, worship leader, and professor of Worship Studies at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, Atlanta.

“AMEN CORNER” OR BEFORE IT’S TOO LATE Learn how we can share our faith with people of any age in any place. Even the golf course! TED SPRAGUE—founder and president of Witness Breakthrough, avid golfer and former executive director for the Georgia Golf Hall of Fame.

UNPRECEDENTED IMPACT: HELPING BOOMERS EMBRACE A KINGDOM VISION FOR RETIREMENT Learn the different phases of retirement and ways the church can help people navigate them. DR. AMY HANSON—gerontologist, older adult ministry specialist, author and consultant.

IF YOU HAVE PASSED THE BATON—TAKE IT BACK Have we confused the “baton of engagement” with the “mantle of leadership”? Learn how we can re-engage a generation that has been told to quit running and get out of the race. DR. CHUCK STECKER—founder and president of A Chosen Generation, a ministry that exists to equip and train leaders for intergenerational ministry.

UNDERSTANDING, ENCOURAGING AND SUPPORTING OUR ELDERS AND CHANGING THE PERCEPTION OF AGING, ONE DREAM AT A TIME Understand the dynamics of aging and how to develop ministry that meets needs while giving meaning and joy to the lives of our elders. P.K. BEVILLE—a geriatric specialist, consultant, and founder and president of Second Wind Dreams, an organization that seeks to fulfill the dreams of those living in elder care communities.

LAYING BRICKS OR BUILDING CATHEDRALS? INVITING, TRAINING AND MOTIVATING VOLUNTEERS Learn how to challenge people in the second half of life to be involved in meaningful and significant service. DR. DOUG FAGERSTROM—Senior Vice President of Converge Worldwide, former seminary president, pastor and professor, and author of The Volunteer.

PASTORS TO PASTURES Join in a discussion about what happens to pastors and leaders after age 50. Does a call to ministry have a shelf life? DR. RICHARD BERGSTROM—founder and president of ChurchHealth, executive pastor, church consultant. Panel includes Dr. Gordon MacDonald and Dr. Doug Fagerstrom.

ENCORE: HELPING BOOMERS CREATE A SECOND ACT Learn practical tools to help Boomers find their God-given purpose in the second half of life. CHRIS HOLCK—Director, ENCORE ministries of the Evangelical Free Church of America, and founder of Encore Generation Inc.

MAKING THE SECOND HALF WHOLE Learn how to pull younger generations into your adult leadership so intergenerational relationship becomes an integral part of your ministry and planning process. WES and JUDY WICK—founders of YES! Young Enough to Serve, an interdenominational ministry focused on tapping the full potential of adults in life’s second half.

MINISTERING TO THE BODY, MIND AND SOUL Explore ministry ideas that strengthen and sustain these three threads of the Christian’s life. PEGGY FULGHUM—minister to seniors at Johnson Ferry Baptist Church, Marietta, Georgia.

TOO IMPORTANT TO LOSE: A GRANDPARENT’S PLAN FOR BUILDING A LEGACY OF BLESSING How can grandparents intentionally leave a legacy of faith and blessing to the next generation? CAVIN HARPER—founder and president of Christian Grandparenting Network and author of Wayfinder and Living Your Will.

CASA NETWORK LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE NOVEMBER 10–12, 2010 ATLANTA, GEORGIA

Conference will be held at the beautiful Hilton Marietta–Hotel and Conference Center

GREETINGS//

I am so excited about 2010 ILC—Atlanta! Better Together? Yes we are! Learn how to bridge the generation gap in your church. Gain fresh insights into Second Half ministry. And much more. We've a great lineup of leaders to show us the way. Sound great? Then let's get "better together."

See you in Atlanta!

Ward Tanneberg

Executive Director, CASA Network

CASA Network invites you leave the hustle and bustle of the large city and step into the charm and history of the Old South. The luxurious hotel is home to historic scenes and artifacts for you to discover. Walk through the gardens and explore Brumby Hall, one of the few remaining antebellum homes in Atlanta. You can trolley through the warmth of the small southern town or venture into the excitement and culture of the metropolitan city. The November temperature in Atlanta averages in themed 60's, perfect for the on-site golf course, tennis courts or walking the nature trail. Discover southern hospitality at its best.

Y'all come, now, ya hear?
